

An Equal Opportunity Employer

It is our policy to provide equal employment opportunity to all individuals. We are committed to insuring that all recruiting, hiring, training, promotion, compensation, and other employment related programs are provided fairly to all persons on an equal opportunity basis, regardless of race, color, creed, ancestry, national origin, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, military service, arrest record, conviction record or use or nonuse of outside lawful products. These are protected classes under the WI Human Rights Act. Applicants for employment who believe they have been discriminated against have the right to notify the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 1801 L Street, NW, Washington DC 20507.

All personnel actions such as pay, promotion, job assignments, leave or benefits, training, licensing or union membership, demotion, lay-off and firing, recruitment and/or hiring are administered without regard to any characteristic protected by state, federal or local law. Applicants will not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, retaliation, coercion or discrimination because they have exercised any right protected by law.

I understand that by Bloomer Telephone accepting my application is in no way making a promise of employment. I understand that if I am hired, my employment is founded on the employment-at-will principle meaning that I as well as Bloomer Telephone are able to terminate employment at any time without just cause. In addition, I understand that by applying at Bloomer Telephone I am not guaranteed employment and that all applications are given equal and fair consideration.

I authorize any school, previous employer, or reference disclosed in my cover letter, resume, application or interview to provide information about my performance or persona. I also unconditionally, release such school, previous employer, or reference disclosed from any and all liability for furnishing such information.

Bloomer Telephone reserves the right to conduct a background investigation as a condition of employment.
